Confused, frustrated, need a little help with your digital camera?

You bought your camera because you thought it might be easy. Well, it is.

I can help you decipher your camera's controls and understand what the Owner's Manual is trying to tell you.

You can learn more about composition, exposure control, and understand the built-in programs in your camera.

For several years I wrote articles for Shutterbug Magazine on basic photography and I enjoy helping people use their camera and enjoy it more.

Where: The location of your choice in the New River Valley area, even your back yard

Times: By appointment at your convenience

Other: Instruction rates are $50 per hour for individuals or couples. This is not a class, it is personal instruction with you and your camera.
